++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mostly dry and bright. Any showers largely confined to north.

Today:
Most staying dry and seeing good bright and sunny spells, these more prolonged across Down and around Belfast. Always a touch cloudier around the north coast where the bulk of the few isolated showers appear. Maximum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Tonight:
Any remaining showers in the north soon dying out, on an otherwise dry evening and night. However higher cloud feeding from the northwest towards dawn, as the southwest winds strengthen. Minimum temperature -1 deg C (30 deg F).

Tuesday:
Chance of some early brighter spells in the far south, on an otherwise cloudy day, with patchy light rain and drizzle at times. Fresh to strong southwest winds. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Wednesday rather cloudy with some patchy rain or drizzle. Thursday and Friday mainly fine, dry and occasionally sunny.
